

To help the millions of Americans living in other countries, including hundreds of thousands of Texans, to register and cast absentee ballots, the Overseas Vote Foundation, a non-profit and non-partisan organization dedicated to serving the needs of uniformed and overseas American voters, recently launched a program to provide citizens living abroad with free or reduced cost express delivery service for their registration forms and absentee ballots.

Just go to Overseas Vote Foundation's website and you will find step-by-step instructions on how to get reduced rates and express delivery of both your voter registration forms and your ballot. Remember, too, that Texans can find out on-line whether you are registered to vote by going to the Secretary of State's website. Just go to the Online Voter Central page and click "Am I Registered?" on the left side of the page. The deadline to register for the November election is October 6, so don't delay!

Those websites are:
